SENATE RESOLUTION 195

Senator McKnight offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Earl Campbell, the Tyler Rose, has performed with excellence at all levels of football competition and has done so with dignity and honor while leading the Christian life both on and off the field as he was taught by his mother, Mrs. Ann Campbell; and

WHEREAS, On March 12, the Tyler Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring Earl Campbell Day to recognize and express their pride in the champion who was born and raised in Tyler, Texas; and

WHEREAS, After Earl Campbell led his John Tyler High School team to the Texas State Football Championship in 1973, he came to The University of Texas where he set conference and school rushing records and was the top scorer and rusher in the nation in 1977; he capped his college career by being named the recipient of the Heisman Trophy, symbolic of the top collegiate player in America; he was the first Longhorn to win the Heisman and only the fourth in Southwest Conference history; and

WHEREAS, Earl Campbell remained in Texas, taking his gifted talents to the Houston Oilers where he won almost every honor possible his rookie season; the awards included, among many too numerous to mention, the Associated Press Player of the Year, Pro Football Writers Player of the Year, Football Digest Offensive Rookie of the Year, Mutual Broadcasting Company NFL Player of the Year and the Field Scovell Award by Texas Sportswriters for Excellence in Athletic Vigor, Integrity, and Achievement; and

WHEREAS, Earl Campbell is an outstanding Texan who has accomplished early in his career honors of the highest order and has earned the respect of his peers and the cheers of his fans, his hometown, and his state; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 66th Legislature, congratulate Earl Campbell for his extraordinary achievements on the football field and commend him for his diligence and his impeccable conduct off the field; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the Texas Senate join with the Tyler Chamber of Commerce on March 12, Earl Campbell Day, to wish Earl a warm and memorable celebration for his enviable accomplishments and expectation of greater success to come; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That official copies of this Resolution be prepared for Earl Campbell as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the Texas Senate.

The resolution was read.

On motion of Senator Howard and by unanimous consent, the names of the Lieutenant Governor and Senators were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

On motion of Senator McKnight and by unanimous consent, the resolution was considered immediately and was adopted.

Chaplain Gerald Mann, University Baptist Church, Austin, offered the following invocation:

Earl Campbell's favorite prayer:

I ain't what I oughta be
But I ain't what I use'ta be
And, thank God, I ain't what I'm gonna be. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF GUESTS

Senator McKnight was recognized by the President and escorted Earl Campbell, his mother, Mrs. Ann Campbell and Renee Smith to the President's Rostrum.

Secretary of State George W. Strake, Jr., presented the Governor's proclamation, declaring March 12, 1979, to be "Earl Campbell Day"

Senator McKnight then presented Senate Resolution 195 and Chaplain Gerald Mann presented an illumination of today's invocation to Earl Campbell.

Earl Campbell then addressed the Senate and Senator McKnight introduced Mrs. Campbell and Renee Smith to the Senate and guests present.

The President presented Speaker Clayton, who advised those present that Earl Campbell would be honored in the House of Representatives today.

SENATE RESOLUTION 192

Senator Mauzy offered the following resolution:
